G7 C C/

And you've shattered all of my dreams. Chorus

DDUDD

| INTRO:                         | C G7                                    | C             | C/          |    |
|--------------------------------|---|---------------|-------------|----|
| (Please don'                   | t take my sur                           | nshine away)  |             |    |
| CHORUS: Tacit                  | C                                       | C7            |             |    |
|                                |   | my only sunsl | hine.       |    |
| 100.01                         | F                                       | ,,            | C           |    |
| You make                       | e me happy, v                           | when skies ar | e gray.     |    |
|                                | F                                       |               | C Am        |    |
| You'll nev                     | er know dea                             | r, how much   | I love you. |    |
|                                | C                                       | G7 C          |             |    |
| Please do                      | n't take my s                           | unshine awa   | y.          |    |
| OUTRO: Repeat last             | line x2                                 |               |             |    |
|                                |   |               |             |    |
| VERSE I                        |   |               |             |    |
| Tacit C                        | C7                               |               |             |    |
| The other night dea            | r as I lay sleer                        | ping,         |             |    |
| F                              | С                                       |               |             |    |
| I dreamed I held you           | ı in my arms.                           |               |             |    |
| F                              | С                                       |               |             |    |
| When I awoke dear              | I was mistake                           | en            |             | С  |
| C G7                           | C                                |               |             |    |
| And I hung my head             | d and cried.                            | Chorus th     | en          |    |
| VEDCE II                       |   |               |             |    |
| VERSE II  Tacit C              |   | C7     |             | C7 |
| Tacit C I'll always love you a | and make you                            | _             |             |    |
| F                              | That make you                           | л парру,      |             |    |
| If you will only say the       | he same                                 |               |             |    |
| F                              | C                                       |               |             |    |
| But if you leave me            | _                                       | ther          |             | F  |
| G7                             | C                                       | crici,        |             |    |
| You'll regret it all so        | _                                       | Chorus th     | nen         |    |
|                                | ,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,, |               |             |    |
| Tacit C                        | C7                               |               |             | G7 |
| You once told me yo            | ou really love                          | d me,         |             | G/ |
| F                              | С                                       |               |             |    |
| And no one else cou            | ıld come betv                           | ween,         |             |    |
| F                              |   | С             |             |    |
| And now you've left            | me to love a                            | nother,       |             |    |
|                                | G7 C                                    |               |             |    |